Intended learning outcomes

Course contents

The teaching is studio-based. Specific course assignments, themes, design criteria, and deliverables for Studio Projects will be revised and settled before every academic year by the examiner. Studio Projects include both individual work and teamwork, following the planning and course assignments decided by the examiner.

Examination

- EXMN - Examination studio project, 12.0 credits, grading scale: P, F

Based on recommendation from KTH's coordinator for disabilities, the examiner will decide how to adapt an examination for students with documented disability.

The examiner may apply another examination format when re-examining individual students.

If the course is discontinued, students may request to be examined during the following two academic years.

Examination is based on an overall assessment of:

- tutorials
- presentations
- critical reviews of project work
- course assignments

Work must be completed within the given time frame of the course.

Other requirements for final grade

A requirement for examination is 80% attendance and active participation at lectures, seminars, tutorials and other course activities; and approved assignments.

Attendance at critical reviews is mandatory.

Special regulations for completion apply. The rules for completion can be found on the programme web.

Ethical approach

- All members of a group are responsible for the group's work.

- In any assessment, every student shall honestly disclose any help received and sources used.
- In an oral assessment, every student shall be able to present and answer questions about the entire assignment and solution.
